Fourth Meeting of the WV Public Health Impact Task Force to be held at the Monongalia County Health Department MORGANTOWN, WV

The fourth meeting of the West Virginia Public Health Impact Task Force will be held at the Monongalia County Health Department on July 15 from 12:30 - 2:30pm.

The task force includes members of the Bureau for Public Health, local health departments, private and public partner organizations and policymakers. The group hopes to streamline the way health care is processed in West Virginia by recommending structural and organizational changes to make the state's public health system work more efficiently with communities.

This meeting is open to the media. Please contact Ted Krafczyk at 304-319-3775 if you have any questions concerning the meeting.
